

ICICI f-o-f head joins Kaizen in Mumbai

Amit Ratanpal, the force behind ICICI Group's f-o-f business, is joining Kaizen Private Equity as a principal and member of the investment committee.

Kaizen, an education-focused private equity fund, told AVCJ, "Amit is a strong believer in operations-driven private equity and therefore has chosen to join Kaizen as the fund's philosophy matches his most closely." Ratanpal has 12 years of experience in capital markets, asset management, and investment banking, and "enhances the Kaizen team's capital markets network in India, providing additional support to creating exit opportunities for portfolio companies while deepening the team's investment banking network."

Amit Ratanpal